

2022 OSDIA Colorado Foundation Scholarship Application

The Order Sons and Daughters of Italy in America (OSDIA) is the largest organization of Americans of Italian descent in the United States and Canada. Their purpose is to unite all people of Italian descent to celebrate the culture and heritage of their ancestral country while celebrating the contributions of Italians to America.

Every year, the Grand Lodge of Colorado and the OSDIA Colorado Foundation awards scholarships to deserving students from across the state. Each scholarship is awarded on the basis of leadership and academic achievement. These awards are in the amount of $1,000 and are applied toward tuition at any accredited community college, university, or trade school. These awards are open to graduating high school seniors as well as current undergraduate students. Undergraduate students must submit their final high school transcript along with a current college scholarship.

The Order Sons and Daughters of Italy in America is dedicated to promoting excellence in education. Scholarship recipients will be honored at a luncheon in June at a location to be determined. Recipients must be present. Students unable to attend are not eligible for scholarship awards.
